cigars & rums

cuban cigars

“If I cannot smoke in heaven, then I shall not go”
Mark Twain

“A good Havana is one of the best pleasures that I know” Somerset Maughan

“If you forget a line all you have to do is stick the cigar in your mouth and puff on it until you can think of what you have forgotten” Groucho Marx

Cohiba Medium flavour

Cohiba was created in 1966 as Havana's premier marque for diplomatic use only. From 1982, it was offered to the public in three sizes: Lanceros, Coronas Especiales and Panetelas. Three more sizes – Esplendidos, Robustos and Exquisitos – were added in 1989 to complete La Linea Clasica. Then in 1992 the five sizes of La Linea 1492 were announced: Siglo I, II, III, IV and V to mark the anniversary of Columbus' epic voyage. In 2002 10 years later, Siglo VI was added.

La Linea 1492 Siglo I 4" x 40 ring gauge £8.95
La Linea 1492 Siglo VI 5 3/8" x 46 ring gauge £25.50

Guantanamera Light flavour

All Guantanamera cigars are made from the Vuelta Arriba, the second most important region in Cuba, introduced in 2002 this is a machine made cigar offering light flavour at an affordable price.

Guantanamera Puritos 4 1/8" x 29 ring gauge £2.00
Guantanamera Compay 4 7/8" x 40 ring gauge £3.50

Montecristo Medium to Full flavour

Introduced in 1935 by the H.Upmann factory, Montecristo appeared first in just five sizes, described by numbers not names. The other sizes like the 'A' and Especiales were added in the early 1970's. Montecristo's distinct flavour delighted cigar smokers so much that it has reigned as the most popular Habano for over two decades, created exclusively with leaves from the Vuelta Abajo region.

Montecristo No 2 6 1/8" x 52 ring gauge £15.70
Montecristo Petit Tubos 5 1/8" x 42 ring gauge £9.40

Trinidad Medium flavour

Once Havana's mystery brand. Reserved as Cuban Government gifts from 1969 to 1998 when just one size, the Fundadores, was introduced to the public. Made at Cohiba's exclusive El Laguito factory, this rare cigar offers an approachable, well-rounded, medium flavour with a distinct hint of richness.

Coloniales 7" x 40 ring gauge £12.95

Bolivar Full flavour

Simon Bolivar, one of the great romantic figures of the 19th century, liberated much of South America from Spanish rule. In 1901, seventy one years after his death, the Rocha company in Havana commemorated him on their cigars. It is perhaps not surprising that a brand named after such a powerful figure is blended to match his might.

Bolivar Tubos No.3 5" x 34 ring gauge £6.50

H.Upmann Light to Medium flavour

H.Upmann was a banker. He became so besotted with the cigars he received from Cuba that he moved to Havana in 1844 and set up both as a banker and cigar maker. His bank soon closed but his cigars, each box of which still bears his signature, remain a fine example of an elegant light-flavoured Habano.

Junior (Tubed) 4" x 36 ring gauge £5.50

“I don't drink, I do not smoke, I sleep a great deal. That is why I am in one hundred percent form”
General Montgomery

“I drink a great deal, I sleep a little and I smoke cigar after cigar. That is why I am on two hundred percent form”
Sir Winston Churchill
